

THE D. GARY YOUNG
YOUNG  LIVING™
FOUNDATION

GUIDELINES FOR CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS

The D. Gary Young, Young Living Foundation is proud to contribute to the communities where Young Living members live and work through contributions to charitable organizations. In keeping with our mission statement, the Foundation prioritizes assistance for qualified 501(c)(3) organizations.

Within our standard guidelines, you must:

- Be a current Young Living member in good standing
- Submit your application at least 30 days prior to the date your organization needs the contribution
- Be ready to share what you or your team are personally/collectively contributing to the project/organization
- Upload a copy of your organization's 501(c)(3) determination letter during the application process
- Not submit more than one request per group in a 12-month period
- Remember that we are unable to accept requests from non-U.S. based charitable organizations at this time

We do not provide direct aid to:

- Individuals
- Capital campaigns, building projects, or equipment
- Transportation and travel expenses
- Political organizations
- Religious organizations for religious purposes
- Government agencies/entities
- Loans or investments
- Research studies
- Athletic teams, events, or sponsorships
- Merchandise promotions, partnerships, or advertising
- Development or production of books, films, videos, television programs, or websites
- Parties, celebrations, parades, festivals, and raffles
- Grants, donor-advised funds, private foundations, and personal trusts
- Individual schools, including public or private day care facilities, nursery schools, preschools, elementary/primary/middle/high schools, community colleges, and universities
- Bachelor/bachelorette auction events and beauty, talent, or fashion contests
- Teams, groups, or individuals seeking assistance for travel or scholarships or incentivizing team members

The Young Living Foundation reserves the sole and absolute discretion to determine recipients of its charitable contributions. The Young Living Foundation may exclude or include organizations and/or provide contributions as the Young Living Foundation determines appropriate. Once your request is received, it will be reviewed, and you will be notified of our decision. If you have any specific questions after reviewing these guidelines, please contact us at info@younglivingfoundation.org.
